Cold sandwiches can be very simple or very sophisticated. They are perfect for so many occasions. You can pack sandwiches for your lunch for school or work. You can pack a picnic and bring a blanket, sandwiches, cold drinks and potato chips. You could also pack a cooler and head to the beach, don't forget the ice and the sandwiches! If you are throwing a party, you should think of sandwiches.

If you are watching football on a Sunday, cold sandwiches with veggies and dip seem like the perfect snack.

You understand why I am trying today; you can eat and take sandwiches almost anywhere. There is no wrong place to eat a sandwich, I promise you. You can even take a first date to a deli to eat cold-cut sandwiches, and I promise you it will be OK!

My son used only to want either an American cheese sandwich with butter or Nutella sandwiches. Fortunately, his tastes changed, and now he loves trying so many different types of sandwiches. In my childhood, it was always peanut butter and grape jelly or baloney sandwich with yellow mustard. Fortunately, my tastes also changed quite a bit. And this is a good thing. Now we both love exploring flavors. We can create our sandwiches with our ideas, ingredients we all love and very creative I must say sometimes.

Thank you for stopping by and reading our cookbook. We promise we will deliver some excellent, fun and different types of cold sandwiches.
