Fudge, a classic favorite, dates back to the late 19th century. Its rich, creamy texture and variety of flavors have made it a beloved sweet treat worldwide. Whether it's chocolate, vanilla, or peanut butter, fudge is sure to satisfy any sweet tooth.

Taffy, also known as the "old-timey" treat, originated in the early 18th century. Its chewy consistency and abundance of flavors make it an irresistible delight. Many enjoy pulling taffy to create long, thin, delicious strands that are as fun to eat as they are tasty.

Caramel corn, a staple at carnivals and fairs, has been around since the late 19th century. This crunchy and sweet snack is a mix of fluffy popcorn and sticky caramel coating. Its delightful combination of flavors is tough to resist, making it a popular choice for movie nights and gatherings.
