What will you be eating for Halloween?

Karie has put together her collection of Halloween goodies for the whole family to enjoy that are inspired by her love of Halloween and Filipino American cuisine. From movies to loveable spooks Karie has found inspiration to help her kids fall in love with the Halloween season and to even love foods they have cringed to eat just by dressing up the name of the dish to fit the season. Karie's fun twist using Filipino American foods has her kids all over her "Spooky Snacks", "Diabolical Dishes", and "Traacherous Treats" that include:

- Elevenses - A Hobbit's Snack
- Polyjuice Potion
- Psychedelic Pretzel Monsters
- Stuffed Jacks
- Squish Squash Soup
- Trolls Delight
- Franken Cakes
- Unicorn Poop Scoops

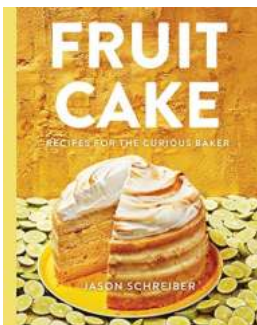

- Blood Clot Bread Pudding

Here we encourage our spooks to play with their food and try the scary-looking lumps on their plates - after all, the good little monsters who eat their food grow up to be the biggest, the baddest, and the scariest!
