Note that the price of this cookbook is less than the cost of mailing a printed copy!

Here are over 180 heritage recipes, handed down over several generations in the Rater Family, mainly in the upper Plains states and West Coast areas.

See the Royal Connection, how this family links directly to King James IV of Scotland! Also to the author Ian Fleming and Abraham Lincoln.

You can make use of the unique Ingredient Index. While in most cookbooks the index is a rehash of the table-of-contents, this has an actual ingredient index, so if you have a certain ingredient, you can easily go to each recipe that uses it.

If your family name is listed here, an important part of your family tree might be included in the Rater Family Tree, and an old family favorite recipe might be in here!
