2. Instant Pot Mashed Potatoes

Mashed potatoes are a classic side dish loved by many. Utilizing an Instant Pot can drastically reduce the cooking time without compromising the creamy texture. Simply peel and chop the potatoes, add them to the Instant

Pot with some water, and let it work its magic. In just a few minutes, you'll have perfectly cooked and flavorful mashed potatoes.

3. Sheet Pan Stuffing

Traditional stuffing can be time-consuming when baked inside the turkey or prepared separately in a casserole dish. Try making sheet pan stuffing instead, which saves both time and effort. This method involves spreading the stuffing mixture onto a sheet pan, resulting in a crispy and evenly cooked stuffing. It's a delicious alternative that requires less prep and cook time.

4. Easy One-Pan Cranberry Sauce

Cranberry sauce is a classic accompaniment for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. Instead of spending time stirring a pot on the stove, try making a simple one-pan cranberry sauce. Combine fresh cranberries, orange juice, sugar, and a touch of honey in a saucepan and let it simmer until the cranberries burst and release their natural sweetness. It's a hassle-free method that takes little time to prepare.

5. Slow Cooker Pecan Pie

Pecan pie is a classic dessert enjoyed during the holiday season. Instead of spending time making the pie crust from scratch and baking it in the oven, try a slow cooker version. By simply combining the pie filling ingredients and pouring them into a prepared pie crust in a slow cooker, you can enjoy a delectable pecan pie with a fraction of the effort and time required.

With these time-saving dishes, you can spend less time in the kitchen and more time celebrating with your loved ones. By using these tips and recipes, you'll be able to serve a delicious feast without missing out on the holiday festivities. Happy cooking and enjoy the holidays!
